The Compton Heights Concert Band

Whether it's an antique clock or a stately old house, perhaps you have felt the sense of satisfaction that comes from restoring and breathing life into some relic of a bygone day. That same preservationist philosophy is the driving force behind the Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis and our efforts to promote and perform the fine concert band literature of yesteryear.

The band was organized in 1976 by band President, Harry Swanger, who formed the band to provide music for Compton Heights neighborhood events. The band started in his livingroom with just a handful of musicians. Today, the band numbers over 50 volunteer, student and professional musicians who annually present 30 concerts in St. Louis and outstate Missouri.

The band began an eight week summer concert series in 1980 in Tower Grove Park and added a sister series in Francis Park in 1986. These concerts, dubbed Sunday Serenades and Musical Mondays, attract 50,000 listeners annually. Under the auspices of the Missouri Arts Council Touring Program the band annually tours in outstate Missouri and has been acclaimed by audiences in Hermann, Joplin, Farmington, St. Peters, Cape Girardeau, and Ste. Genevieve.

Featuring John Philip Sousa-style programs, each concert includes outstanding soloists. Some of the nation's most talented musicians have appeared, including Arturo Sandoval, Sukay-music of the Andes, Ricardo Morales, Robert Ellison, William Warfield, Debbye Turner, Buckwheat Zydeco, the Nuclear Whales Saxophone Orchestra, The BNFL British Brass Band, Jan Gippo, Beverly Stewart Anderson, Gail Lennon & the Lennon Brothers, and tenor, Hugh Smith.

Gregory C. Fox was appointed Conductor in September 1992. He finds the audiences "the greatest" and the opportunity to conduct the band "unique". He holds a Doctor of Education in Music Education from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana, studying conducting under the noted Harry Begian. The announcer is Lucy Schroeder, wife of band vice-president and tubist Jon Schroeder. Lucy injects a lively sense of humor and energy into concerts and helps the audience gain a deeper appreciation of the music the band is presenting.

Volunteers in the band contribute over 20,000 hours annually to make our concerts possible. In addition to weekly rehearsals and the busy concert schedule, many band members have devoted thousands of volunteer hours at our Friday and Saturday charity bingos at Bandwagon Hall, 6245 Lemay Ferry Road. The band is also supported by the Regional Arts Commission, St. Louis Parks & Recreation Department, Southwest Bank, Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation, Missouri Arts Council, Arts & Education Council, Commerce Bank, and NationsBank. Individual contributions from "Bandwagon" members also help the band. To make a tax-deductible donation, fill out and send the form within to Compton Heights Band, 2335 So. Grand, St. Louis, Mo. 63104 or call 776-2227. E-mail: chband@stlouis.missouri.org

HISTORY OF THE ARTS COUNCIL OF SOUTHEAST MISSOURI

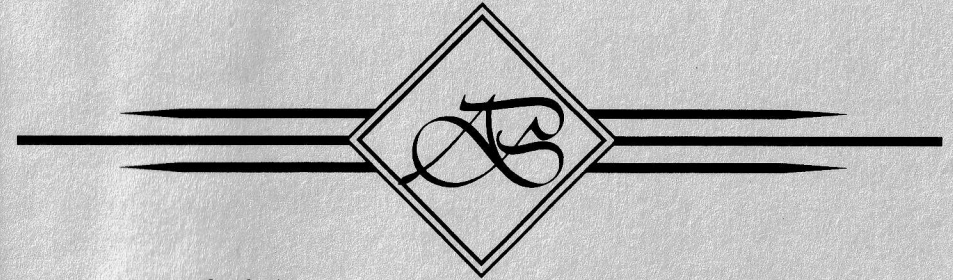

The Allied Arts Guild of Cape Girardeau was formed in November, 1957 by a small group of concerned citizens as a not-for-profit organization to coordinate publicity for local arts groups and increase audiences and artists participation in the cultural life of the community. Existing art groups included the Cape Girardeau Community Theatre, Cape Girardeau Symphony, Cape Choraliers, Community Concert Association, Organists Guild, Alamanders Square Dance Club, Ballet Dance Club, Photographers Club, Hi-Fi Club, Writer's Guild and Municipal Band (est. 1900.) The Guild lasted through 1961, and was succeeded in 1962 by the Christian Arts Council of Cape Girardeau, founded by Otto M. Dingeldein, and his friends.

With an emphasis on the creative process, the Christian Arts Council worked to involve the youth of the community and utilize the resources of local churches and schools. It sponsored a variety of festivals, workshops and other arts activities, attained not-for-profit status, and developed a membership. In 1970 the Council received the first award in Missouri from the National Endowment for the Arts to cover the costs of a poetry booklet produced from annual poetry workshops. In 1971 the First Regional Craft Fair was held.

In 1974 the name was changed to The Arts and Recreation Council of Cape Girardeau, Inc. It received a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts to provide part-time administrative staff. Later that year the name was again changed to Southeast Missouri Council on the Arts, Inc., now doing business as the Arts Council of Southeast Missouri.

In 1983 the Arts Council was housed in the Concord Theatre, its use provided by Gary and Wendy Rust of the Southeast Missourian Newspaper. The office was moved in May of 1986 to 100 Broadway, in the Boatmen's Bank Building, and the Gallery renamed Gallery 100. The offices moved 7 years later to 1707 Mt. Auburn Rd. and in 1996 to the location of 6 North Sprigg Street. In March of 1998, the Arts council Moved to its present location of 199 Independence. A full-time administrative position was established in 1985 through Missouri Arts Council support and the part-time secretary was promoted to Executive Director. An additional full-time administrative staff position was added in 1990. In August of 1997, Greg Jones took over as the new Executive Director of the organization. Since its inception the Council has been directed by a citizen board made up of volunteers interested in the arts and their development in the community.

The mission of the Southeast Missouri Council on the Arts is to provide a forum for Cape Girardeau and surrounding area residents to explore, reflect and share in the diversity and excitement of the arts. By showcasing the arts, the Council invites life-long participation, stimulates the exchange of new ideas and heightens the awareness that the arts are for everyone and help build a shared sense of community and common purpose.
