Band History

Whether it's an antique clock, a vintage automobile, or a stately old house, perhaps you have felt that certain sense of satisfaction that comes from restoring and breathing life into some relic of a bygone day. That same preservationist philosophy is the driving force behind the Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis and our efforts to promote and perform the fine concert band literature of yesteryear.

The Band was organized in 1976 by Band President, Harry Swanger, and initially provided music for Compton Heights Neighborhood events. Numbering only eighteen members at its first performance, the Band has since grown to include over seventy volunteer, student, and professional musicians from throughout metropolitan St. Louis.

"MUSICAL MONDAYS", the Band's eight week summer series of old-fashioned band concerts, held annually since 1980, is held in the Henry Shaw Memorial Bandstand in Tower Grove Park, recently designated a national historic landmark. The Band's other popular series, "SUNDAY SERENADES", at Francis Park in south St. Louis, began in 1986. They are two of the city's favorite musical traditions, attracting over 50,000 listeners annually.

In keeping with the traditional Sousa-style program, each concert features a different instrumental or vocal soloist. Over the years the Band has had the honor of performing with some of the nation's most talented musicians, among them William Warfield, James Christensen (director of music at Disney World in Florida), Dr. Leonard Smith, Debbye Turner, Miss America 1990, and Arturo Sandoval. During the 1987 season, the Band gave the world premier performance of a specially commissioned piece written by Robert Wykes, composer-in-residence at Washington University. The next year the band had the distinct privilege of hosting the national convention of the Association of Concert Bands, an occasion marked by Missouri House and Senate Resolutions. Most recently, the Compton Heights Concert Band has been acclaimed by audiences in Hermann, Joplin, Farmington and St. Joseph, Missouri, under the Missouri Arts Council Touring Program and other sponsors.

To help finance its many expenses, the Band depends upon individual and corporate donations, concert sponsors' fees, a weekly Bingo, sales of T-shirts and other souvenirs, and BANDWAGON memberships. Support also comes from such organizations as The Missouri Arts Council, The Regional Arts Commission, The Arts and Education Council, The Monsanto Fund, and the Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation.

If you would like more information, please call the band office at 776-2227, or write to The Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis, 2335 S. Grand, St. Louis, Missouri 63104.

They also provide office help and assist in concert presentations. BANDWAGON members interested in "pitching in" should call the Band at 776-2227.
