Interested in volunteering to help the Compton Heights Concert Band?

In order to make these wonderful concerts possible, there are a lot of activities behind the scenes which call for volunteer assistance. For example, many volunteers are needed weekly to conduct our benefit bingo, a critical ongoing fundraiser for the Compton Heights Concert Band. Volunteers are often needed to give out programs at our concerts, assist our T-shirt table, etc. Volunteers can also help in many other ways such as flyer/poster distribution from time to time. If you are willing to help, please fill out the form below and turn in at the Band's T-shirt table or to the Compton Heights Concert Band, 2333 S. Grand Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63104 or call the band office at 776-2227.

Band History

The Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis was organized in 1976 by Harry Swanger, Band President, for Compton Heights neighborhood events. By 1977, the Band appeared in the Tower Grove Park Concert Series. Presently, the Band consists of over sixty amateur, student and professional musicians from all walks of life from the St. Louis metropolitan area, under the direction of Malcolm McDuffee.

Maestro McDuffee, named Band Director in January, 1988, has a long professional and academic career including Assistant Principal Trumpet with the St. Louis Symphony, 1973-1987.

The Compton Heights Concert Band is noted for the annual tandem series "MUSICAL MONDAYS" (12th year) in Tower Grove Park and "SUNDAY SERENADES" (6th year) in Francis Park, attracting annually over 50,000 listeners. The Band has attracted national attention as a host for the 1988 Association of Concert Bands National Convention. In addition to its local schedule, the Band plans to tour in Missouri this year as a Missouri Arts Council Touring Organization.

The Band is funded by individual and corporate donations, a Saturday night bingo, Band memorabilia sales and grants, including the Regional Arts Commission, Missouri Arts Council, Monsanto Fund, and the Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation.

For further information, call 776-2227 or write the Compton Heights Concert Band, 2333 S. Grand Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri, 63104.

New Band Fundraiser Can You Help?

The band has just begun a fundraiser which allows us to "cash in" on sales from specially designated CHCB benefit vending machines offering candy, nuts, gum, etc. All we need is the permission of the retail shop, office, etc. where the machines are to be placed. A trained representative will come and tailor the machine contents and location to the wishes of the shopkeeper. IF YOU ARE A RETAIL SHOP OWNER, OFFICE MANAGER, ETC. AND WISH TO HELP, FILL OUT THE COUPON BELOW. Turn in today to the T-shirt table or send it in to us. The next time you visit your favorite shop, take a moment to tell them about this special deal and how they can help the Compton Heights Concert Band. Point out that although there are no fees paid to them, there is also no cost in placing the machines. Then, sign them up! Thanks for your help!

Permission is hereby granted to the Compton Heights Concert Band to place Ford/Astro Self-Service Machines on these premises without obligation to the grantor, with the understanding these machines and the authorized products are covered with insurance to protect the grantor.

COMPTON HEIGHTS CONCERT BAND BOOKSTORE

Bookstore News

The Compton Heights Concert Band Bookstore now has available some wonderful new items that are sure to be as popular as they are unique, especially the addition of three exciting new books to our St. Louis literature collection:

Arch Celebration; Photographs by Tom Ebenhoh, Text by Steve Givens
Every city has "its book," which captures its special beauty and flavor, and this one is ours, as it commemorates the 25th anniversary of our most famous landmark with breathtaking photos and a deeply moving text. This should be required reading for all St. Louisans and anyone you wish to impress with St. Louis' appeal. Hard cover $25, soft cover $15

Lemp-The Haunting History; Stephen P. Walker
Written by a member of the Band, this book reveals another important slice of St. Louis history. Steve blended a wealth of information about the evolution of the brewing industry with the scandalous and tragic story of the Lemp family, added a fascinating view of turn-of-the-century St. Louis, and a pinch of haunted happenings to cook up a book that is easy to digest, and nearly impossible to put down. Great for history buffs, beer drinkers, and ghost lovers, or anyone who wants to read a true story that makes Dynasty seem tame in comparison. Soft cover only; $12

A Gift to Glory In; William Barnaby Faherty, S.J.
Our third new book, written by one of St. Louis' best-known authors, chronicles the first one hundred years of the world-renowned Missouri Botanical Garden (known locally as Shaw's Garden). Henry Shaw's foresight and generosity are described in this delightful book, as are the Garden's major accomplishments and near-disasters. Hard cover $25, Soft cover $10

Searching for Gift Ideas?

Besides the items on this page, the Band offers T-Shirts, tote bags, notepads, as well as more books with St. Louis themes. This year we also have available a ceramic coffee mug, complete with Band logo and filled with a package of our own special blend of gourmet coffee. For more information on these and other gift items, call the Band office at 776-2227.

The Old-House Journal—A Deal That's Real!

Have we got a DEAL for you; REALLY! No, we don't have any Ginsu knives, but if you order a subscription to the Old-House Journal, we can offer you a great deal: order through the Band, and receive nearly 25% off the regular subscription price of one full year of the old house restorer's "bible," which contains a wealth of info regarding how-to's, and information on decorative and architectural styles. BUT THAT'S NOT ALL! A portion of each subscription price goes directly to the CHCB. BUT WAIT—THERE'S MORE! If the Band sells more subscriptions than any other group in the country (and we have several times in the past), we will receive a grant of $1,000 from the OHJ publishers. Truly a win/win situation, but there's a catch: the Deadline for the grant is fast approaching, so won't you help us by ordering your subscription today? How about one for a friend or relative?
