The driving force behind the Compton Heights Concert Band is a preservationist philosophy to promote the American Concert Band, the unique American art form created by Patrick Gilmore in the 1860's and perfected by John Philip Sousa at the turn of the last century, and to play the fine concert band literature of yesteryear. As with jazz, another unique American art form, concert bands and concert band literature are undergoing a resurgence in America. Sousa's concerts were dubbed "the world's greatest pops concerts". In this tradition, a Compton Heights Concert Band concert features programming appealing to all ages and musical tastes; "something for everyone".

From its modest beginning in the Compton Heights neighborhood living room of band organizer, President and Executive Director, Harry F. Swanger, in 1976, the Band quickly became a metropolitan St. Louis area tradition, attracting over 50,000 listeners annually to its famed summer series, Sunday Serenades in Francis Park and the tandem series Musical Mondays in Tower Grove Park. Last year marked the 9th Annual highly successful Compton Heights Band Holiday Pops at Powell Hall. Performances in the past have included headliners such as Peter Nero, piano; Doc Severinsen, trumpet; and the perennial summer and Powell Hall crowd favorite, Hugh Smith, tenor. Other featured artists include: BBC Cardiff 2005 Singer of the World, Nicole Cabell; Arturo Sandoval, jazz/classical trumpet wizard; Sigrun Hjalmtysdottir, "Diddú", Soprano, David Morris, International Whistling Champion, Buckwheat Zydeko, Sukay, "Music of the Andes"; Alex Klein, Oboe; James Christensen, Walt Disney World; BNFL Brass Band; Butch Wax & The Hollywoods with Billy Peek; the late Johnnie Johnson; Jerry Robinson & Sax-O-Peel, The Lennon Brothers; the late William Warfield, Baritone; Debbye Turner, marimba; Ricardo Morales, Metropolitan Opera principal clarinet; the late Myron Floren, accordion; Keith Brion, Sousa portrayer; The Legend Singers; Robert Ellison, baritone; and Beverly Stewart-Anderson, soprano.

Edward Dolbashian, Music Director & Conductor, is the orchestra and opera conductor at the University of Missouri, Columbia, the Clayton Symphony, and the Alton Symphony Orchestra. He was appointed conductor of the Compton Heights Concert Band in September, 1998. He is a professional oboist and an English Horn player, originally from New York. Lucy Schroeder, announcer, is the wife of band vice-president and tubist Jon Schroeder, an original member of the Band!

In addition to weekly Band rehearsals, members devote thousands of volunteer hours at bingo at Bandwagon Hall on Friday and Saturday nights throughout the year. The Band is also supported by the Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation, Foot and Ankle Associates, Missouri Arts Council, Regional Arts Commission, Southwest Bank, St. Louis Parks & Recreation Department, Tower Grove Park, and the Bandwagon Citizen Support Group.

Immaculate Conception / St. Henry's Architect: Barnett, Haynes & Barnett

A Gothic building in stone, dedicated in 1908 as the newest home of an Irish congregation. It stands on Lafayette Avenue on the city's near south side, less than a block from the bustle of I-44. Three rose windows punctuate the soaring interior; stained glass windows are even found inside the bell tower (which gives the appearance that it was meant to be raised to a greater height when funds allowed.) From Built St. Louis: City Churches www.builtstlouis.net/churches/church18.html.

Note from the President: A year and a half ago, the Compton Heights Concert Band, in addition to presenting Sunday Serenades and Musical Mondays concerts, moved to our new home at 3120 Lafayette Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63104, the former Immaculate Conception/St. Henry Catholic Church and Rectory, just one block East of Compton and easily reachable by I-44 taking the Grand Blvd exit in either direction. The church provides us with a terrific rehearsal facility and plans are to convert it to a concert facility, as well as the location of our office headquarters.

In April 2008, we closed on the purchase of the church and rectory! The Church and the Rectory were also just designated as National Historic Landmarks! Stay tuned for information on future activities at our concert hall, as well as a Capital Campaign to be announced soon to fund, renovate, and endow this wonderful, magnificent, historic complex! We will need Your Help! Harry Swanger, President

Support The Compton Heights Concert Band
A Special Message from the President.

An often asked question this summer by you, our faithful fans, has been "how are you doing?" This is a perplexing question to answer. On one hand we have so many seemingly exciting projects in progress such as our renovation of the new headquarters and concert hall (former Immaculate Conception church), renovation of a former DeBasio Furniture Store for a state of the art bingo facility (best and biggest in Missouri), and the infusion of many new, young players; winners of the 1st annual Compton Heights Concert Band College Scholarship program, to name a few.

Moosic Says
Please Help!

On the other hand, unavoidable expenses, such as replacement of aging equipment, crop up along with the expenses of growing and solidifying our organization vis a vis our new concert hall and the new charity bingo facility. For example, last summer, we had to spend upwards of $20,000 for sorely needed platforms, audio equipment, chairs, lighting, instruments, and other equipment for our rehearsal and concert stages. In addition to improve our bingo fundraising with the pending new facility, hundreds of thousands of dollars had to be spent on plans, permits, and the completed renovation. Long term financing was necessary. Unlike the members of the Zoo-Museum District, we receive no large tax subsidies. Consequently, the Bandwagon memberships are not extra but essential funds for operating and supporting our growth considering the free Sunday Serenades and Musical Mondays series costs over $300,000 to produce each year. Therefore, I make my plea, again, for your help. Everybody's Help! You can change your membership or give us a check today with your Bandwagon form. You can fax your donation, too! Please take a moment and turn in your donation at the promotional table. It's tax deductible. Thank you, Harry F. Swanger, President

I want to help the Band and be a Bandwagon member!

Robert Ellison, Baritone

Robert Ellison is the Compton Heights Concert Band's Baritone soloist. Retired from the USAF, he resides in O'Fallon, Illinois. Bob has performed as a guest soloist with the St. Louis Symphony, Pittsburgh Symphony and in productions of Showboat, Two Gentleman of Verona, and Godspel. He was featured in an in-concert version of Porgy & Bess at the Band's "Sunday Serenades" and "Musical Mondays" concert series in 2000 with Beverly Stewart Anderson and the Legend Singers. A grant from CALOP, University City, allowed the Band to record and present it on Cable TV and on the Band's own "Sunrise Serenades" TV Show, which aired Saturdays, 5:30 AM, KMOV-TV, Channel 4 for over a year. Bob also toured with the Band to Joplin under the auspices of the Missouri Arts Council Touring Program. Last summer, he sang with Nicole Cabell, the 2005 BBC Singer of the World. He has also sung with tenor, Hugh Smith on many occasions on this stage. Bob is featured in the Compton Heights Band's "A Star Studded Spectacular" CD available at the promotional table. Bob has been an audience favorite for over 25 years!

Edward Dolbashian, Music Director/Conductor

Edward Dolbashian has been Music Director of the Missouri University Philharmonic in Columbia, Missouri, since 1984; Music Director of the Alton Symphony Orchestra, in Alton, Illinois, since 1993; and the Compton Heights Concert Band since September 1998. He is also the conductor of the Clayton Symphony. Mr. Dolbashian began his musical training as a student at New York's famed High School of the Performing Arts. He earned his degrees in oboe performance at the Hartt College of Music, Hartford, CT.

His conducting career began as director of the Holyoke Symphony Orchestra in Holyoke, MA. He studied conducting at the prestigious Pierre Monteaux School of Orchestra Conducting in Maine, under Charles Bruck; and at Yale University as student conducting assistant to Otto Werner-Mueller leading to a Master of Musical Arts degree in Orchestral Conducting. Further studies took place at the Tanglewood Institute, with Leonard Bernstein, Seiji Ozawa, Andre Previn, and Gustav Meier, and the Boris Goldovsky Opera Conducting Seminar. Mr. Dolbashian was a member of the Hartford Symphony for 11 years and was principal oboe of the Hartford Chamber Orchestra, the Goldovsky Opera Company, and the Hudson Valley Philharmonic. He debuted as oboe soloist in Town Hall, NY, NY, 1969.
