Band History

Whether it's an antique clock, a vintage automobile, or a stately old house, perhaps you have felt that certain sense of satisfaction that comes from restoring and breathing life into some relic of a bygone day. That same preservationist philosophy is the driving force behind the Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis and our efforts to promote and perform the fine concert band literature of yesteryear.

The Band was organized in 1976 by Band president Harry Swanger and initially provided music for Compton Heights Neighborhood events. Numbering only eighteen members at its first performance, the Band has since grown to include over seventy volunteer, student, and professional musicians from throughout metropolitan St. Louis.

"Musical Mondays," the Band's eight-week summer series of old-fashioned band concerts, is held in the Henry Shaw Memorial Bandstand in Tower Grove Park, recently designated a national historic landmark. The Band's other popular series, "Sunday Serenades," at Francis Park in south St. Louis, was begun in 1986. They are two of the city's favorite musical traditions, attracting over 50,000 listeners annually.

In keeping with the traditional Sousa-style program, each concert features a different instrumental or vocal soloist, including several fine virtuosos from the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. Over the years the Band has had the honor of performing with some of the nation's most talented musicians, among them William Warfield, James Christensen (director of music at Disney World in Florida), Dr. Leonard Smith (director of the renowned Detroit Concert Band), and Debbye Turner, Miss America 1990. During the 1987 season, the Band gave the world premier performance of a specially commissioned piece written by Robert Wykes, composer-in-residence at Washington University in St. Louis. The next year the Band had the distinct privilege of hosting the national convention of the Association of Concert Bands, an occasion marked by Missouri House and Senate Resolutions.

The Compton Heights Concert Band is directed by Malcolm McDuffee, who was first appointed Assistant Band Director in 1986, and assumed the duties of full-time Band Director in January of 1988. Mr. McDuffee holds a B. S. in Music Education from Ithaca College, and a Masters Degree in Music Performance from Indiana University. He has enjoyed a long and distinguished professional career, including the position of Assistant Principal Trumpet with the St. Louis Symphony from 1973 to 1987. He is presently on the music faculties of Washington University and the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

To help finance its many expenses, the Band depends upon individual and corporate donations, concert sponsors' fees, a weekly Bingo, sales of subscriptions to the Old-House Journal, sales of T-shirts and other souvenirs, and Bandwagon memberships. Support also comes from such organizations as The Missouri Arts Council, The Regional Arts Commission, The Arts and Education Council, The Monsanto Fund, and The Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation.

If you would like more information, please call the Band office at 776-2227, or write to The Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis, 2335 South Grand, St. Louis, MO 63104

COMPTON HEIGHTS

Compton Heights—A History and Architectural Guide; by Carolyn Hewes Toft and Jane Molloy Porter

Here it is; the concise and absorbing history of the neighborhood that sprouted your very favorite concert band! This enjoyable effort artfully chronicles the colorful story of one of St. Louis' most beautiful private places, complete with numerous photos of its grand homes and biographical sketches of the architects behind their design. Long home to our city's most prosperous German families, Compton Heights recently embarked upon its second century. 90 pages, 8 x 10, paperback; $10.00

Lemp—The Haunting History; by Stephen P. Walker

Once the Lemps were counted among the cream of St. Louis' social elite, and the wares of their brewery were known worldwide until Prohibition and a rash of family suicides marked the downfall of their dynasty. Today, there is convincing evidence that the Lemps are still with us—at least in spirit—keeping a watchful eye over the stately mansion they left behind. Learn all about the rise and fall of one of our country's most notable brewing families, in this, the first book ever published on the subject. Written by a member of the Band's saxophone section. 128 pages, 8 1/2 x 11, paperback; $12.00

Walking In Tower Grove Park; by Robert E. Knittel

Take a dreamy walk through America's finest Victorian strolling park, as the author minutely describes each change of leaf and bud, flower and tree, on your journey through the changing seasons and across more than a century of time. Bring this book along on your own personal walks through this pastoral setting, and you're certain to gain a deeper appreciation of the often-unnoticed wonders of Tower Grove Park, one of only four urban parks to be designated a National Historic Landmark. Many of the park's design motifs are reflected in the illustrations. 105 pages, 6 x 9, paperback $9.00, hardcover $13.00

Arch Celebration; Photographs by Tom Ebenhoh, Text by Steve Givens

This handsome edition is one St. Louis photographer's personal and moving commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the completion of the Gateway Arch. You'll marvel at Ebenhoh's compilation of images, which illustrate just some of the countless effects to be achieved through variations in light, shadow, color, and angle that make every trip to the Arch a unique and compelling experience. The text consists of interviews with everyday people: those who live and work in the shadow of Saarinen's great curve, those who built it, and some of the millions who have visited it. 96 pages, 9 x 11, paperback; $15.00

A Gift To Glory In; by William Barnaby Faherty, S. J.

The story of the first 100 years of the Missouri Botanical Garden, by one of our city's most knowledgeable and prolific authors. A gift to the people of St. Louis from Henry Shaw, you'll see how the Garden was first established, and how the ingenious Shaw and his colleagues developed it into one of the world's most respected centers of botanical science. Faherty's scholarly writings also provide insight into the relationship between the Garden and Shaw's other living legacy, Tower Grove Park. A must for every student of St. Louis history. 234 pages, 6 x 9, paperback $15.00, hardcover $25.00

A Grand Heritage; by NINI Harris

If you love the history of the south St. Louis region, this is the book for you. Here you can explore the fascinating treasures and landmarks of the south Grand area, and travel through time to its rural roots, tracing the development of some of the city's best known institutions. The famous Pelican's restaurant, the South-Side YMCA, and Shaw's Garden are examined, as are several noteworthy neighborhoods like Compton Heights and Shaw, and many of the more popular local businesses and cultural institutions, past and present. Generously illustrated with many rare photographs. 94 pages, 8 1/2 x 11, paperback; $10.00
