Band History

Whether it's an antique clock, a vintage automobile, or a stately old house, perhaps you have felt that certain sense of satisfaction that comes from restoring and breathing life into some relic of a bygone day. That same preservationist philosophy is the driving force behind the Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis and our efforts to promote and perform the fine concert band literature of yesteryear.

The Band was organized in 1976 by Band president Harry Swanger and initially provided music for Compton Heights Neighborhood events. Numbering only eighteen members at its first performance, the Band has since grown to include over seventy volunteer, student, and professional musicians from throughout metropolitan St. Louis.

"Musical Mondays," the Band's eight-week summer series of old-fashioned band concerts, is held in the Henry Shaw Memorial Bandstand in Tower Grove Park, recently designated a national historic landmark. The Band's other popular series, "Sunday Serenades," at Francis Park in south St. Louis, was begun in 1986. They are two of the city's favorite musical traditions, attracting over 50,000 listeners annually.

In keeping with the traditional Sousa-style program, each concert features a different instrumental or vocal soloist, including several fine virtuosos from the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. Over the years the Band has had the honor of performing with some of the nation's most talented musicians, among them William Warfield, James Christensen (director of music at Disney World in Florida), Dr. Leonard Smith (director of the renowned Detroit Concert Band), and Debbye Turner, Miss America 1990. During the 1987 season, the Band gave the world premier performance of a specially commissioned piece written by Robert Wykes, composer-in-residence at Washington University in St. Louis. The next year the Band had the distinct privilege of hosting the national convention of the Association of Concert Bands, an occasion marked by Missouri House and Senate Resolutions.

The Compton Heights Concert Band is directed by Malcolm McDuffee, who was first appointed Assistant Band Director in 1986, and assumed the duties of full-time Band Director in January of 1988. Mr. McDuffee holds a B. S. in Music Education from Ithaca College, and a Masters Degree in Music Performance from Indiana University. He has enjoyed a long and distinguished professional career, including the position of Assistant Principal Trumpet with the St. Louis Symphony from 1973 to 1987. He is presently on the music faculties of Washington University and the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

To help finance its many expenses, the Band depends upon individual and corporate donations, concert sponsors' fees, a weekly Bingo, sales of subscriptions to the Old-House Journal, sales of T-shirts and other souvenirs, and Bandwagon memberships. Support also comes from such organizations as The Missouri Arts Council, The Regional Arts Commission, The Arts and Education Council, The Monsanto Fund, and The Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation.

If you would like more information, please call the Band office at 776-2227, or write to The Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis, 2335 South Grand, St. Louis, MO 63104

Sing Along

YANKEE DOODLE BOY

I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy,
A Yankee Doodle, do or die;
A real live nephew of my Uncle Sam's,
Born on the Fourth of July.
I've got a Yankee Doodle sweetheart,
She's my Yankee Doodle joy.
Yankee Doodle went to London,
Just to ride the ponies,
I am a Yankee Doodle boy.

YOU'RE A GRAND OLD FLAG

You're a grand old flag,
You're a high flying flag,
And forever in peace may you wave.
You're the emblem of the land I love,
The home of the free and the brave.
Ev'ry heart beats true
'Neath the red, white and blue,
Where there's never a boast or brag,
But should auld acquaintance be forgot,
Keep your eye on the grand old flag.

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of the I sing.
Land where my father died!
Land of the pilgrim's pride!
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory
Of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping down the vintage
Where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning
Of His terrible swift sword:
His truth is marching on.
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crowned thy good
with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.
