Band History

The Compton Heights Concert Band of St. Louis was organized in 1976. Initially, the Band performed at Compton Heights Neighborhood events. The Band's membership numbered 18 at its first performance. By 1977 the Band made its first major public appearance in the Tower Grove Park Concert Series in the Henry Shaw Memorial Bandstand. Presently, the Band consists of over sixty amateur, student and professional musicians from the St. Louis metropolitan area. The Band includes in its membership lawyers, doctors, teachers, and many other occupations.

Malcolm McDuffee was appointed Assistant Band Director in September, 1986. He was named Band Director in January, 1988. Holder of a B.S. in Music Education, Ithaca College, 1963 and a Master in Music Performance, Indiana University, 1968, he has enjoyed a long professional career including the Assistant Principal Trumpet position with the St. Louis Symphony, 1973-1987. He is presently on the Washington University and U.M.S.L. Music Faculties.

The Band's original Director was Kaid Friedel, a founder of the Band and member of the St. Louis Symphony horn section. Mr. Friedel brought to the Band a long professional conducting career including the Alton Civic orchestra, Kansas City American Legion Band and Kansas City Youth Symphony.

This past summer the Band presented its ninth "MUSICAL MONDAYS" (originally "TUNE-FULL TUESDAYS") series which at eight concerts attracted more than 20,000 listeners to the Henry Shaw Memorial Bandstand in Tower Grove Park. In 1981 the Band and the "TUNE-FULL TUESDAYS" series were honored by a City of St. Louis proclamation. Last summer the Band repeated its "SUNDAY SERENADES" Series on Sunday nights in Francis Park and Union Station. Both Series will be repeated this summer for the fourth consecutive year with all "SUNDAY SERENADES" concerts in Francis Park.

The Band has been recognized by the Selmer Band Instrument Company, Elkhart, Indiana, as a model for community concert bands throughout the nation. Many of the Band's ideas were incorporated by Selmer in a nationally distributed publication for community bands. The Compton Heights Concert Band recently was honored as the Host for the National Convention of the Association of Concert Bands. Missouri House and Senate Resolutions marked this occasion and the Band's accomplishments since its inception.

To finance the many expenses connected with its operations, the Band depends on individual donations, concert sponsors' fees, corporate donations, a weekly Bingo, sales of Band T-shirts, hats, buttons, books, subscriptions to the Old House Journal, grants from the Regional Arts Commission, the Missouri Arts Council, the Monsanto Fund, the Pitzman Fund, the Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation and BANDWAGON memberships.

For further information, call 776-2227 or write the Compton Heights Concert Band, 2335 S. Grand Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri, 63104.

Sing Along

SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD

Darling, I am growing old — Sil-ver threads among the gold,
Shine up-on my brow to-day, — Life is fading fast away
But, my dar-ling, you will be, will be Al-ways young and fair to me
Yes, my darling, you will be — Always young and fair to me

When you hair is sil-ver white — And your cheeks no long-er bright,
With the ro-ses of the May, — I will kiss your lips and say
Oh, my darling, mine a-lone, a-lone — You have nev-er old-er grown.

WHEN YOU WORE A TULIP

When you wore a tu-lip,
A sweet yel-low tu-lip,
And I wore a big red rose.
When you ca-ressed me,
'Twas then Heav-en blessed me,
What a bless-ing no one knows
You made life cheer-ie
When you called me dear-ie,
'Twas down where the blue grass grows,
Your lips were sweet-er than ju-lep,
When you wore that tu-lip
And I wore a big red rose.

BILL BAILEY

Won't you come home Bill Bailey
Won't you come home
I miss you all day long
I'll do the cooking darlin', I'll pay the rent,
I know I've done you wrong
'Member that rainy eve that I drove you out,
With nothing but a fine-tooth comb
I know I'm to blame, well ain't that a shame
Bill Bailey won't you please come home.
